

Author Study Resources Joseph Bruchac

Internet (links are active)

1. Joseph Bruchac's Website
<http://www.josephbruchac.com>
2. Scholastic Author Study
<http://www.scholastic.com/teachers/collection/joseph-bruchac-author-study>
3. University of Iowa Author Study
http://www2.education.uiowa.edu/html/eportfolio/tep/07e190-191folder/Original%20Unit/unit_overview.htm
4. Author Study (slideshow)
<http://www.slideshare.net/nataliea/joseph-bruchac-author-study>
5. Abenaki History
<http://www.tolatsga.org/aben.html>
6. Abenaki (Encyclopaedia Britannica)
<http://www.britannica.com/EBchecked/topic/1405/Abenaki>
7. Native Languages of the Americas
<http://www.native-languages.org/abenaki.htm>
8. Native American Facts for Kids
http://www.bigorrin.org/abenaki_kids.htm
9. Navajo Code Talkers
<http://navajocodetalkers.org>
10. Navajo Facts for Kids
<http://navajocodetalkers.org/navajo-facts-for-kids/>
11. Navajo Nation Museum (see Exhibitions)
<http://www.navajonationmuseum.org>

Campus Visits/Sites

Some teachers make a full day of the trip by visiting UC Davis campus locations. Here are two that are particularly relevant to Joseph Bruchac's work:

1. Arboretum—Native American Contemplative Garden
http://news.ucdavis.edu/search/news_detail.lasso?id=9277
2. C.N. Gorman Museum
<http://gormanmuseum.ucdavis.edu>

